SUMMARY

Computer Science student at Monash University Malaysia who builds and ships production AI systems, including a multi-model chatbot integrating Gemini, OpenAI and on-device LLMs at NTT DATA, and a full-stack AI platform led end-to-end through Gamuda AI Academy. Six months translating marketing data into clear, actionable recommendations for non-technical clients at Creative Unicorn built a habit of making technical work land with any audience, a skill carried into leading teams to a Top 10 national finish at the L'Oreal x Monash Datathon. Comfortable moving between code, data and client conversations, with a growing interest in structured problem solving and strategy consulting. Native English and French speaker.
